Dulles to Speak At PTA Lecture

CPYRIGHT

Allen W. Dulles, former director of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, will discuss "The Role of Intelligence in National Security" at Talcott Junior High School, West Hartford, at 8:30 p.m. next Wednesday under the auspices of the Foreign Policy Assn. It will mark the second annual William Ainsworth Green Memorial lecture given in memory of the former head of Kingswood School history department and FTA president.

Dulles, who has served in diplomatic, legal and intelligence posts under the last eight U. S. presidents, has authored several books, including "Germany's Underground." His latest book, "The Craft of Intelligence," was published last fall.

A section of the Talcott Junior High School auditorium will be open to the public admission free.
